Character Value Helpfulness

This month's character value is helpfulness, we will be talking about this all this month during Learning Wall and Circle Time. We will be encouraging our children to be helpful around the classroom and at home.

After years of dedicated leadership, we bid farewell to a truly inspiring woman who has made a lasting impact on our team. Her vision, guidance, and unwavering support has shaped countless successes and fostered a workplace built on collaboration and respect. While we're sad to see her go, we're excited for her new journey and are wishing her all the best on her next chapter—you will be deeply missed Ms. Rebecca!

A huge thank you to all the wonderful grandparents who joined us and helped make Grandparents Day truly special! Your presence, love, and support brought so much joy to our students and staff. We're grateful for the memories shared and the smiles you brought you made the day unforgettable!
